1. Jews emigrating from Rumania to Israel on ships of Rumanian registry are passed through the Rumanian customs in Bucharest and then transported under Militia guard to Constanta by rail.
2. Jewish emigrants departing by ships not of Rumanian registry pass through a thorough customs examination at the Maritime Station in Constanta.
3. Customs examination of emigrants departing by Rumanian ship, that is, the MS TRANSYLVANIA, is held at Bucharest because facilities are lacking at Constanta to handle the approximately one thousand five hundred passengers carried by this vessel on each trip. Emigrants suitcases are sealed in Bucharest and the seals are examined on the day of embarkation by customs inspectors in Constanta.
